EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

CRIMINAL NO. 13-20212

HON. AVERN COHN

-vs-

OFFENSE: 18 U.S.C. § 1951(a), Conspiracy to Affect Commerce Through Extortion

D-2 SHAWN WILLIAMS,

STATUTORY MAXIMUM PENALTIES:

Up to 20 years in prison

Up to $250,000 fine

Up to 3 years of Supervised Release

Defendant.

RULE 11 PLEA AGREEMENT

Pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, defendant Shawn Williams and the government agree as follows:

1. GUILTY PLEA

A. Count of Conviction

The defendant will enter a plea of guilty to Count 1 of the First Superseding Information, which charges him with conspiring to affect commerce by way of extortion, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1951(a), and for which the penalty is a maximum of up to twenty years imprisonment, a maximum fine of up to $250,000, a special assessment of $100, and up to three years of supervised release.

B. Elements of Offense

The elements of the conspiracy offense that the government would need to prove beyond a reasonable doubt at trial are: (1) that the defendant knowingly and intentionally; (2) entered into an agreement with one or more persons; (3) to affect commerce by way of extortion.

In order to prove a violation of the Hobbs Act by way of extortion under color of official right under 18 U.S.C. § 1951(a), the government would need to prove: (1) a co-conspirator was a public official, or held public office; (2) a co-conspirator/public official attempted to obtain property not due him or his office; (3) this property was to be given, with the consent of the giver, because of the official position of the co-conspirator; and (4) interstate commerce, or an item moving in interstate commerce, was delayed, obstructed, or affected in any way or degree.

C. Factual Basis for Guilty Plea

The following facts are a sufficient and accurate basis for the defendant's guilty plea:

Between November 2012 and January 23, 2013, the defendant was a public official in that he was employed as an auxiliary police officer for the Highland Park Police Department in Highland Park, Michigan. During the same period of time, Price Montgomery, Anthony Bynum, and Craig Clayton were also public officials in that they were employed as police officers with the Highland Park Police Department.

Between November 2012 and January 2013, the defendant, Montgomery, Clayton, and Bynum agreed with one another to accept money in exchange for using their power as police officers to protect and transport a shipment of four kilograms of cocaine from Troy, Michigan to Taylor, Michigan. The Clayton, Montgomery, and Bynum each accepted $1,500 in cash for their work. The defendant accepted $1,000 for his work.

2. SENTENCING GUIDELINES

A. Standard of Proof

The Court will find sentencing factors by a preponderance of the evidence.

B. Agreed Guideline Range

There are no sentencing guideline disputes. Except as provided below, defendant's guideline range is 18 to 24 months, as set forth on the attached worksheets. If the Court finds:

a) that defendant's criminal history category is higher than reflected on the attached worksheets, or

b) that the offense level should be higher because, after pleading guilty, defendant made any false statement to or withheld information from his probation officer; otherwise demonstrated a lack of acceptance of responsibility for his offense(s); or obstructed justice or committed any crime, and if any such finding results in a guideline range higher than 18 to 24 months, the higher guideline range becomes the agreed range. However, if the Court finds that defendant is a career offender, an armed career criminal, or a repeat and dangerous sex offender as defined under the sentencing guidelines or other federal law, and that finding is not already reflected in the attached worksheets, this paragraph does not authorize a corresponding increase in the agreed range.

Neither party may take a position concerning the applicable guidelines that is different than any position of that party as reflected in the attached worksheets, except as necessary to the Court's determination regarding subsections a) and b), above.

3. SENTENCE

The Court will impose a sentence pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3553, and in doing so must consider the sentencing guideline range.

A. Imprisonment

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(C) the sentence of imprisonment in this case may not exceed the top of the sentencing guideline range as determined by Paragraph 2B.

B. Supervised Release

A term of supervised release, if imposed, follows the term of imprisonment. There is no agreement on supervised release. In other words, the Court may impose any term of supervised release up to the statutory maximum term, which in this case is 3 years. The agreement concerning imprisonment described above in Paragraph 3A does not apply to any term of imprisonment that results from any later revocation of supervised release.

C. Special Assessment

Defendant will pay a special assessment of $100 and must provide the government with a receipt for the payment before sentence is imposed.

D. Fine

There is no agreement as to fines.

E. Restitution

The Court shall order restitution to every identifiable victim of defendant's offense and all other relevant conduct.

4. OTHER CHARGES

If the Court accepts this agreement, the government will dismiss all remaining charges in the underlying criminal complaint at the time of sentencing.

5. EACH PARTY'S RIGHT TO WITHDRAW FROM THIS AGREEMENT

The government may withdraw from this agreement if the Court finds the correct guideline range to be different than is determined by Paragraph 2B.

The defendant may withdraw from this agreement, and may withdraw his guilty plea, if the Court decides to impose a sentence higher than the maximum allowed by Part 3. This is the only reason for which defendant may withdraw from this agreement. The Court shall advise defendant that if he does not withdraw his guilty plea under this circumstance, the Court may impose a sentence greater than the maximum allowed by Part 3.

6. WAIVER OF APPEAL

The defendant waives any right he may have to appeal his conviction. If the sentence imposed does not exceed the maximum allowed by Part 3 of this agreement, the defendant also waives any right he may have to appeal his sentence. If the sentence imposed is within the guideline range determined by Paragraph 2B the government agrees not to appeal the sentence, but retains its right to appeal any sentence below that range.

7. CONSEQUENCES OF WITHDRAWAL OF GUILTY PLEA OR VACATION OF CONVICTION

If defendant is allowed to withdraw his guilty plea or if any conviction entered pursuant to this agreement is vacated, the Court shall, on the government's request, reinstate any charges that were dismissed as part of this agreement. If additional charges are filed against defendant within six months after the date the order vacating defendant's conviction or allowing him to withdraw his guilty plea becomes final, which charges relate directly or indirectly to the conduct underlying the guilty plea or to any conduct reflected in the attached worksheets, defendant waives his right to challenge the additional charges on the ground that they were not filed in a timely manner, including any claim that they were filed after the limitations period expired.

8. PARTIES TO PLEA AGREEMENT

Unless otherwise indicated, this agreement does not bind any government agency except the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Michigan.

9. SCOPE OF PLEA AGREEMENT

This agreement, which includes all documents that it explicitly incorporates, is the complete agreement between the parties. This agreement supersedes all other promises, representations, understandings and agreements between the parties concerning the subject matter of this plea agreement that were made at any time before the guilty plea is entered in court. Thus, no oral or written promises made by the government to defendant or to the attorney for the defendant at any time before defendant pleads guilty are binding except to the extent they have been explicitly incorporated into this agreement.

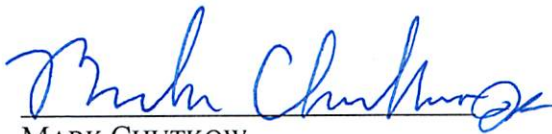

Notwithstanding the previous paragraph, if defendant has entered into a proffer agreement in writing or a cooperation agreement in writing with the government, this plea agreement does not supersede or abrogate the terms of any such prior written agreement.

This agreement also does not prevent any civil or administrative actions against defendant, or any forfeiture claim against any property, by the United States or any other party.

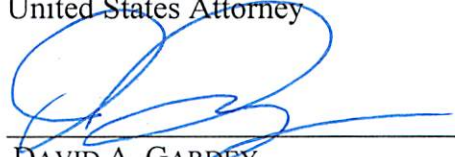

10. ACCEPTANCE OF AGREEMENT BY DEFENDANT

This plea offer expires unless it has been received, fully signed, in the Office of the United States Attorney by 5:00 P.M. on May 2, 2013. The government reserves the right to modify or revoke this offer at any time before defendant pleads guilty.
